The City Circulation of the Herald has been leased to Mr. J. O. McCracken. Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly will confer a favor if they make complaint to The Herald Company, 200 Main St., Salt Lake City.

TOWN TALK.

Hon. W. L. H. Dwyer of Minneapolis, accompanied by Mrs. Dwyer, arrived in the city yesterday to attend the Jubilee.

The Johnson company is making a trip to Europe, France, Germany, Austria and other European countries. The trip will be about two weeks and will be to be away three or four months.

Julius Gauer is making arrangements for a trip to England, France, Germany, Austria and other European countries. The trip will be about two weeks and will be to be away three or four months.

The police arrested a man yesterday who gave his name as John Dwyer, under suspicion of being the person who held up Tom Durkin, the proprietor of the 9th St. bar, Durkin could not identify the man.

H. V. Moley yesterday received a telegram from his brother-in-law at Hastings, Minn., announcing the sad death of the death of his father, A. C. Moley, at the advanced age of 72 years. Mr. Moley is now in the city and will be in time to attend the funeral which takes place tomorrow forenoon, and so will not make the journey home.

A man named Hallwood, a guest of the Brooks Arcade, claims to have had his apartment robbed yesterday morning. Hallwood says he lost $200 and a valuable watch in his apartment. He says he was alone at the time and was well on towards morning. The watchman of the building claims there were no suspicious characters around the building at any time during the night.

Major Levy, who has on previous occasions shown his ability as a decorator, is now executing his plan on the county jail building, and with the limited funds he has at his disposal, he is making the building as attractive as any in the city during the Jubilee. By the way, Mr. Levy did most of the decorating of the women's club room for the reception of Mrs. Bryan, and the beauty of the decoration was a matter of general remark.

Manager Frank Shelly, of the Lagoon, announces that the Great Salt Lake and Ogden Railway company is arranging an excursion for the unemployed from this city to the Lagoon, on July 24th, at which time all wives and children will be carried free to the Lagoon and return. The excursion will be a very good one, and will be appreciated by those who attend.
